Important information about records and audits:

Matching grant funds must be used only for Qualified Education Expenses. However, the Kansas State Treasurer's Office no longer reviews or approves KIDS Program withdrawals in advance.

Starting in 2025, any withdrawal of matching funds under the KIDS Program is subject to audit by the Kansas State Treasurer's Office. If an audit determines that the withdrawal is a nonqualified withdrawal, the Kansas State Treasurer is required to notify the Kansas Department of Revenue and other taxing authorities, and you must repay the matching portion of the withdrawal to the State of Kansas. Non-qualified withdrawals are also subject to federal and state taxes and potential tax penalties.

Do not send receipts or other documents with your withdrawal form. However, in the event of an audit by the Kansas State Treasurer's Office, the Internal Revenue Service, or other agency, you may be required to produce records regarding the use of any funds withdrawn from your KIDS Program Account and any regular Quest529 account. You should keep all records required to demonstrate the use of withdrawals for Qualified Education Expenses.

If you have questions about Qualified Education Expenses, Non-Qualified withdrawals, and potential tax impacts, please refer to the Quest529 Education Savings Plan Description and Participation Agreement and IRS Publication 970 ("Tax Benefits for Education"), and consult with an independent financial or legal advisor.
